

6516207694.txt

I choose not to listen to commercials. When I tune to "Traffic and weather on the eights" I have to listen to seven and a half minutes of commercials. Then I'm in the jam hearing about the jam I'm in. XM has made my fifty mile commute enjoyable, and the traffic and weather is just making it better. I can't understand how I could be forced to listen to commercials.